

Co-Chair: John Burke, Houghton International, Inc Co-Chair: Naveen Berry, SCAQMD

South Coast Air Quality Management District Headquarters 21865 Copley Drive, Diamond Bar, CA March 8, 2012

Agenda

7:30 a.m.	Registration Opens
8:30 a.m.	Welcome	Laki Tisopulos, SCAQMD
8:40 a.m.	Rule Overview and Reporting Requirements	Mike Morris, SCAQMD
9:20 a.m.	Advantages and Disadvantages of Low VOC Vegetable Based Metalworking Fluids	John Burke, Houghton International, Inc.
10:00 a.m.	Break (15 minutes)
10:15 a.m.	Volatile Organic Compound (VOC) Content Test Methodology: Past, Present and Future	Uyen-Uyen Vo, SCAQMD
10:50 a.m.	Methods for the Determination of the Normal Boiling Point of a High Boiling Liquid	Michael Gernon, Taminco
11:25 a.m.	VOC Assessment of Ester Fluids	Tyler Housel, Inolex Chemical Company
12:00 p.m.	Lunch (60 minutes)
1:00 p.m.	Regulations Drive New Advancements in Rust Preventives	Jennifer Ineman, The Lubrizol Corporation
1:40 p.m.	An Unexpected and "Timely" Solution	Tom Manzo, Timely Industries
2:20 p.m.	Reformulating to Comply with Rule 1144: The Good, the Bad and the Oh My	Mike Pearce, W.S. Dodge Oil Co.
3:00 p.m.	Break (15 minutes)
3:15 p.m.	Case Studies of Rule 1144: Implementation at End Users	Mark Fretz, Houghton International, Inc.
3:55 p.m.	Practical Application of Non-Chlorinated Ultra Low VOC Metalworking Fluids Using Renewable Resource Based Technology	Paul Frederick, American Research Products Inc.
4:35 p.m.	Closing	Naveen Berry, SCAQMD